

Confor: promoting forestry and wood is the voice of the UK's forest industries. It represents almost 2,000 members from all parts of the timber supply chain, including growers, woodland managers, suppliers, contractors, harvesters, primary and secondary processors and students.

Its core objectives:

- Helping to build the market for wood and forest products
- Creating a supportive policy environment for forestry and wood-using businesses at all levels of government
- Working with partners to tackle ongoing sectoral issues such as research, skills and business support
- Providing high quality, valued member services.

Confor member benefits include:

- Political and technical representation
- Information: Forestry and Timber News Website
Newsletters and electronic updates
- Helplines: legal, pesticides, woodland taxation
- Education and Providence Fund
- Field visits, conferences and seminars
- Free entry to Confor Woodland Show and the APF
- Discounts for partner events.
